

Notes on Contributors

ARTHUR J. RAY is an Associate Professor of Geography at York University in Toronto. His particular field of interest is the cultural historical geography of Canada's native people. He is the author of Indians in the Fur Trade (University of Toronto Press, 1974).

JEAN DRYDEN is an archivist in the Manuscript Division of the Public Archives of Canada.

JAMES LAMBERT, former coordinator of religious archives at the Public Archives of Canada, is a doctoral candidate in Canadian religious history at Laval University.

CLAUDE MINOTTO travaille à la Direction historique des Archives publiques du Canada depuis 1971. Il occupe présentement le poste de Chef de la Section des Services au Public. Sa tâche consiste à rendre les archives photographiques accessibles à un plus vaste public, principalement par les voies de la publication, de l'exposition et de l'assistance à la recherche.

R.S. GORDON, Chief of the Manuscript Division of the Public Archives of Canada, is a Director and Treasurer of the Canadian Historical Association, and Chairman of the National Archival Appraisal Board. Author of several articles, he is also General Editor of the Union List of Manuscripts and the General Inventories of Manuscript Groups.

GORDON DODDS is responsible for judicial and regulatory records in the Government Records Section, Archives of Ontario. A former teacher and historical researcher, he is a visiting lecturer in archives administration at the University of Western Ontario. In June 1975, he was elected President of the new Association of Canadian Archivists.

CONGRATULATIONS to the new Association of Canadian Archivists, and best wishes for the success of its programme from the PROVINCIAL ARCHIVES OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

This institution emerged from collecting activity in the mid-1890's; a Provincial Archivist was first appointed in 1908. The holdings include government records, private papers, books, newspapers, visual records, maps, and tape recorded material relating to the history of the province and surrounding areas.

The archives are open to all researchers, 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday to Friday, with extended hours by special arrangement during evenings and on week-ends.

Provincial Archives of British Columbia
655 Belleville Street
Victoria, B.C.
V8V 1X4 (telephone 387-3621)