

Notes on Contributors

PAUL ALSBERG is State Archivist of Israel. In 1949 he joined the Central Zionist Archives and was appointed Director of the Israel State Archives in 1957.

HEINZ BOBERACH, an archivist since 1957, is deputy President of the German Federal Archives in Koblenz.

MICHAEL COOK is University Archivist and Lecturer in Archival Studies, University of Liverpool. During 1975-77 he was Director of the Regional Training Centre for Archivists, University of Ghana.

ALF ERLANDSSON has been Chief, United Nations Archives, since 1971. He was previously an archivist with the Swedish National Archives.

MARYNA FRASER is archivist of Barlow Rand Limited, Johannesburg, South Africa.

ISABEL GERACHTY is the historian in charge of the Bell Telephone Historical Collection in Montreal.

MARTINO GIUSTI has been an archivist with the Vatican Secret Archives since 1941 and its Prefect since 1956.

JUDITH HORNABROOK is Chief Archivist at the New Zealand National Archives which she joined after service with the New Zealand War History Branch.

NORIO IWAKURA is Director of the National Archives of Japan. He served on the Executive Committee of the International Council on Archives, 1972-78.

EDWARD LAINE is the archivist responsible for North European records at the Public Archives of Canada.

WALTER NEUTEL is Head, National Ethnic Archives, Public Archives of Canada.

S.N. PRASAD is Director of the National Archives of India.

DAVID QUINN is Emeritus Professor of Modern History, University of Liverpool, and author/editor of many works on North American exploration and discovery.

JACQUES ROUILLARD teaches labour history at the Université de Montréal.

TADEUSZ WALICHNOWSKI has been General Director of the State Archives of Poland since 1976 and is an Associate Professor of Political Science at the University of Warsaw.

SUITE 39,
46 ELGIN STREET,
OTTAWA, ONTARIO K1P 5K6
232-6684

DESIGN, ILLUSTRATION, ASSEMBLY,
PRINTING CO-ORDINATION
AND PRODUCTION