

Directory of Advertisers

Acart Graphic Services	210
Archives of the Prince of Wales Northern Heritage Centre	103
Archives of Ontario	140
Association of Canadian Archivists	104
The Bank of Nova Scotia	208
The City of Toronto Archives	209
Consolidated-Bathurst, Inc.	210
Hollinger Corporation	150
International Council on Archives	194
Provincial Archives of Manitoba	178
Provincial Archives of New Brunswick	208
Provincial Archives of Prince Edward Island	233
Public Archives of Canada	backcover
Les Restaurations Panacée, Inc.	14
Yukon Archives	233

Notes on Contributors

JOHN BATTS is an Associate Professor of English at the University of Ottawa and the author of British Manuscript Diaries of the Nineteenth Century (1976).

TERRY COOK, former Associate Editor of Archivaria and currently Editor of the Canadian Historical Association's Historical Papers, is an archivist with the Public Records Division, Public Archives of Canada.

PETER GILLIS is the alias of a burrower running under deep cover, somewhere in eastern North America. His home base is the Public Records Division, Public Archives of Canada.

RICHARD HUYDA, author of Camera into the Interior (1975), is Director of the National Photography Collection, Public Archives of Canada.

LUDWIG KOSCHE is a librarian on the staff of the Library Division, National Museums of Canada, Ottawa, and has a strong interest in military history.

JOSEPHINE LANGHAM is an archivist with the National Film, Television and Sound Archives, Public Archives of Canada.

KENNETH S. MacKENZIE has been a research officer at the National Postal Museum for five years. He is completing a study of the Quebec Steamship Company and is researching a history of steamship communication in Eastern Canada.

GRACE MAURICE HYAM is Chief of the Union List of Manuscripts Service, Public Archives of Canada.

JAMES MORRISON was with the Rights and Treaty Research Programme of Grand Council, Treaty Number Nine, at Timmins, Ontario. Since 1978 he has acted as a research consultant to a number of Ontario Bands and organisations.

DOUGLAS SPRAGUE is in the history department at the University of Manitoba. Ronald Frye was a graduate student there and now works as a full-time research assistant with Douglas Sprague on the economic and demographic history of Manitoba.