

Issue #5: Corrigendum

Editor's note: The Editors wish to apologize to Professor Irving Abella, Director of Canadian Studies at Glendon College, York University, whose article "Oral History and the Canadian Labour Movement" appeared in Archivaria 4 (Summer 1977): 115-121. The order of paragraphs from the bottom of page 119 to the end of the article was scrambled during the dummyming process. Offprints of the corrected article are available from the Journal Secretary.
