The additional information in the LAC descriptive record for this photograph notes "It is difficult to find the workers in this space behind the mountains of files that dominate the office space. Even today, the management of government records has its challenges, and despite the widespread use of the computer and electronic record keeping, paper is still produced in prodigious quantities."

Copyright

Archivaria has completed a review of its current copyright policy in the course of developing a strategy for electronic publication. It has been seeking the assignment of intellectual property rights for the articles, reviews, notices, and letters that it publishes since issue #56. Inquiries seeking permission to copy articles from issues #1-55 should continue to be directed to individual authors until further notice.
