Cover Illustration: "In front of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council entrance on Downing Street," 13 July 1948.

Description: The photograph depicts the Rt. Hon. J.L. Ilsley, K.C., Cyril F.H. Carson, and L.G. Goodenough. The occasion was a hearing in London, England of the Attorney General for Saskatchewan, Attorney General for Canada, and the Mortgage Loans Association regarding the Farm Security Act of Saskatchewan. Unlike judges in most other Commonwealth countries, Canadian judges and lawyers do not wear wigs; their use was abolished in the early twentieth century, although the exact date varies from province to province. The three Canadians depicted here sport wigs in keeping with the sartorial traditions of the British Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

Copyright

Archivaria has completed a review of its current copyright policy in the course of developing a strategy for electronic publication. It has been seeking the assignment of intellectual property rights for the articles, reviews, notices, and letters that it publishes since issue #56. Inquiries seeking permission to copy articles from issues #1–55 should continue to be directed to individual authors.

The Archival Imagination:

Essays in Honour of Hugh Taylor,
Barbara L. Craig, Editor

This collection was presented to Hugh Taylor by his colleagues to acknowledge the impact he had on archival writing and thought during a remarkable archival career.

This classic features eleven eclectic essays honouring Hugh Taylor's intellectual legacy and builds upon his ideas. Written by some of the foremost archival scholars, topics covered include appraisal, archival education, and the history of archives and records-keeping.

The Power and Passion of Archives:

A Festschrift in Honour of Kent Haworth
Reuben Ware, Marion Beyea, Cheryl Avery (editors)

In this collection of fifteen essays, colleagues of Kent Haworth remember his influential career and explore those ideas he so passionately and effectively advocated: accountability; access and users of archives; descriptive standards.
