Perspectives on the Archival Horizon

June 11 – 13, 2015

Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada

The Association of Canadian Archivists invites you to the 40th Annual Conference Perspectives on the Archival Horizon, June 11-13, 2015 in Regina, Saskatchewan. Under the prairie's big sky, archivists from around the world will cast a critical eye over the wide-open archival horizon. Like the intersection of earth and sky, our horizons are where hopes, expectations, and archival dreams meet the realities of archives in the digital world.

The Association extends a warm welcome to all archivists, from home and away. Comments from previous international delegates indicate the experience is second-to-none:

"It was a privilege and pleasure to be able to attend ACA 2014 and I enjoyed it immensely. It was also highly thought-provoking and has given me some great ideas for framing my research. I really hope to be able to attend future conferences and follow up on the interesting projects in play."

"I enjoyed the conference very much. I've always found ACA conferences so much more stimulating than professional conferences in other countries!"

Conference sessions and activities are based in and around the historic Radisson Plaza Hotel Saskatchewan. Join us for:

- a group visit to Government House, seat of the Northwest Territories' government.
- a visit to the RCMP training academy and heritage centre.
- socializing at some of the city's best restaurants and pubs, within a short walk of the hotel.
- a guided tour of the deadly 1912 Regina cyclone's destructive path,
- the Canadian labour history tour tracing the route of the 1935 Regina Riot and On to Ottawa Trek.

Conference information and registration is available at the ACA's 2015 Conference website
