Archivaria is published twice a year and may be obtained by subscription or through membership in the Association of Canadian Archivists (ACA). Print or electronic subscriptions to Archivaria are available to individuals as well as institutions.

The subscription form, which includes rates, can be downloaded at <https://archivists.ca/content/subscribe> or requested by contacting the ACA office. Taxes and delivery charges will vary depending on whether the subscriber's mailing address is in Canada, the United States, or outside North America.

Membership in ACA includes Archivaria, access to the members-only section of the website, and several other benefits. Information describing these benefits and fees, as well as application forms, are available at <https://archivists.ca/content/join-now>.

Open Access Policy

Archivaria follows both a delayed open access model and a green open access model:

- The eight most recent issues are reserved for subscribers and ACA members.
- In compliance with the Government of Canada's Tri-Agency Open Access Policy, authors can make the published version of their article available through an institutional repository or their own personal website as soon as the journal issue is published online.
- The full collection of published issues (1975–present) is available at <https://archivaria.ca/index.php/archivaria/issue/archive>.

Reprints & Back Issues

1. For reprints of an article that appears in the eight most recent issues of Archivaria, a subscriber or ACA member can obtain articles by logging in at <https://archivaria.ca/index.php/archivaria/archivaria>.
anyone without a subscription or ACA membership can request reprints in paper or electronic (PDF) format based on advance payment of the following fees:
 - articles (includes Counterpoint, Studies in Documents, and Notes & Communications), $25 each;
 - all other items (including book and exhibition reviews), $10 each.
2. An article that appeared in Archivaria more than four years ago can be obtained free of charge on a self-serve basis at <https://archivaria.ca>.
3. Print copies of back issues of Archivaria under embargo (published in the last four years) are available at a cost of $50 each. Print copies of back issues of Archivaria published more than four years ago are available at a cost of $10 each.

Note: A current issue is classified as a back issue when the subsequent issue goes into print production. The postage fees for mailing a single back issue are $5 (Canada), $10 (USA), and $15 (international).

Orders must be prepaid. Canadian taxes apply to orders delivered in Canada. Discounts apply on multiple-copy orders. Please send your order with cheque or credit card information (MasterCard or VISA) to the ACA office:
